Rook Side Table

Metropolitan, Truex, Designer Series

Once in a while a side player will become the star of the show. This is certain to be the case when any part of our stage is set by James Mont. This architectural table was inspired by the designs of James Mont, circa 1950. Crafted of White Oak solids and veneers. Octagonal top with cove-shaped apron. The turned column ends in a pedestal base. Available in cerused Oak finishes.
